LOVE OF BLOOD IN THE FAMILY

Morris Buck Murderer of Mrs. Canfield Known in Arizona.

Morris Buck, the former coachman who murdered Mrs. Canfield, the wife of the millionaire oil man at Los Angeles last week, is known in Arizona. He has at least two relatives in this territory by neither of whom his standing in society was made any the more secure. One of them is a brother, who was sent to the penitentiary for life from Gila county, but was afterward pardoned for the part he took in assisting in preventing an outbreak at the territorial prison led by Three Fingers Jack. It was on that occasion that Assistant Superintendent U. G. Wilder was stabbed. Col. William Griffith was also wounded.

Both of them would probably have been killed but for the interference of Buck, who happened along with a big knife, which he was using in his capacity of cook. He attacked the rascally prisoners and was himself dangerously wounded. His diversion, though, distracted the movement for freedom and it was quickly quelled. Some time after that he was pardoned.

The other relative of the Los Angeles murderer was a girl known as Irene, who used to live in Phoenix in the days when the town had more of an ear for a certain kind of music than it has now. That was in the saloon singing days. She officiated at the Anheuser and other resorts. She also sang in Prescott saloons and at one time or another lived in most of the towns of the territory. She was last heard of at Douglas, where she had gravitated a little lower into the half world.

The special train carrying Canfield and his daughters from Mexico to Los Angeles passed Maricopa early yesterday morning.

INCENDIARY FIRE TO CONCEAL CRIME

A Startling Discovery Concerning the Burning of a New Mexican Home.

Denver, Colo., Jan. 30.—A Republican special from Las Vegas, N. M., says: Sheriff Romero has returned from Trementina in possession of facts that make it appear certain that the burning of the home of Benito Sanches in that village, and two women and children, was really an attempt to conceal a most outrageous crime. There is evidence that the two women, Mrs. Sanches and the young school teacher were criminally assaulted, murdered and the house fired to conceal the crimes.

The charred remains of the women were found in the ruins still lying on the bed and strong evidences of the crime were still apparent. Two men who roomed in the house were drunk during the afternoon and were seen some distance from the house while the fire still raged. One of them fled and the other is still in hiding. Sheriff Romero is satisfied he has enough evidence to convict the men and a determined effort will be made to find them.

IN THE UNITED STATES SENATE

Dromio Spooner: Methinks you are my glass, and not my brother; I see by you I am a sweet faced youth. Will you walk in to see their gossiping?

Dromio La Follette: Not I, sir; you are my elder.

Dro. S.: That's a question; how shall we try it?

Dro. La F.: We'll draw cuts for the senior; till then lead thou first.

Dro. S.: Nay, then, thus: We came into the world like brother and brother.

And now let's go hand in hand, not one before another.

WEATHER TODAY.

Washington, Jan. 30.—Arizona: Fair Wednesday and Thursday.

"Today," said the minister, "I think you'd better take up the collection before I preach any sermon."

"Why so?" asked the deacon.

"I'm going to preach on 'Economy!'" —Philadelphia Ledger.

"All the lower births are taken," said the tuckel-seller. "You'll have to take an upper berth."

"Of course," grumbled the professor. "There's always room at the top." —Chicago Tribune.

THE REPUBLICAN'S PATTERN TEN CENTS EACH

TUCKED BLOUSE 5252.

To Be Made With High or Square Neck, Elbow or Long Sleeves.

Square neck effects are among the favorites of fashion and are always charmingly attractive. Here is a waist that can be treated in various ways and that can be adapted to staple afternoon gowns, or to informal dinners and the like according as the chemise is used or omitted and the sleeves are longer or shorter. In the illustration chiffon taffeta is combined with lace and with bands of the material that are simply embroidered and finished with narrow braid, but there are a great many combinations that might be suggested. Lace makes a favorite for chemises of all sorts but tucked and inserted muslins are always dainty and charming. Again, the bands can be of any applique or braid that may be liked.

The quantity of material required for the medium size is 4 yards 21, 31-2 yards 27 or 2 yards 44 inches wide with 2-3 yard of all-over lace for the chemise or 1-3 yard when long sleeves are used.

The pattern 5252 is cut in sizes for a 32, 34, 36, 38 and 40 inch bust measure.
